The Defendant's theory of the case concerning the charges of marijuana cultivation, possession of an ounce or less of marijuana, possession of drug paraphernalia, and possession of marijuana concentrate, is that the Defendant is "not guilty" of any of these charges because a physician recommended and supported the Defendant's use of medical marijuana, and the Defendant cultivated, possessed, and used medical marijuana or paraphernalia to alleviate the severe pain associated with a severe back injury, and this is a justification for the Defendant's acts.
